

Addendum 2

August 17, 2011

Section 5.2

The following text is added at the end of the fourth paragraph of section 5.2:

“Any public disclosure, either complete or partial, of the content or ideas related to a proposal is considered a breach of anonymity and automatically leads to the disqualification of the competitor at fault, and this, regardless of the means of communication used: verbal (including interviews), written, graphic, etc.”
